SCRABO HALL LIBRARY

Did you know that Scrabo Hall has a library that people can borrow books from? If you have been in the library over the past few months you will have noticed it has been going through a makeover. We have great plans to change the way the library works with both God's and the churches help.

The work has involved trying to rotate some of the books currently on offer. The next part of our plan is to hold a book swap. We would like you to think of any recent Christian books, whether aimed at women, men or children, which you or your family have bought and read and feel that others would benefit from. These will be a very useful addition to our library stock. In exchange for the books that you bring, you are welcome to take the books that have been pre-loved by members in the past. As an added bonus there will be tea and treats.

BOOK SWAP EVENT

Saturday 21st March 10:30-12:30 in the foyer

Tea and Treats will be served.

Help would also be appreciated with set up, catering and serving. If anyone can help please contact Holly McClean 07715409580

Substance OVERDOSE addict

Chris Killen knows first-hand the dangers and struggles of drug addiction as he was once an addict himself. For over 2 decades he has been educating people about the dangers of drugs and how to avoid addiction.

He will be giving a multi-media presentation about the current drug problem with emphasis on the rising cocaine problem and prescription drug abuse. Also participating will be Jeanie Graham who is a full time drugs education speaker in Primary Schools.

Chris will also share his own personal experiences and how his life was wonderfully transformed. He works personally with addicts and affected families, bringing them hope and offering support and guidance.

This event is an initiative of Scrabo Hall Church in partnership with Abbey Primary School.
